Ms. Cason,

It has been more than a month since I've heard back from the Governor's office on my June 20, 2012 IPRA request below. The only response I received was on July 5 stating that my IPRA was "broad and burdensome" and the the Governor's office needed more time. I understand the Governor's office is busy, but I would expect to hear back at least where the status of this IPRA is sooner than now. Can you let me know where it stands? I have cc'ed Gwyneth Doland with Foundation for Open Government onto this message.

Thanks,
Joey Peters

Due to the broad and burdensome nature of your request, the Office will need additional time to respond as allowed by NMSA 1978, § 14-2-10.

Subject: Interview request

Hi Mr. Darnell,

I am writing to request an interview with Gov. Susana Martinez. I am flexible, schedule-wise, and would be willing to meet at any time. The group I work for, Independent Source PAC, has been critical of the governor's decisions, but it's important to me that I give her office the opportunity to address some of our concerns. I will continue writing about decisions made by the governor, and I take covering state government very seriously.

Thanks for the consideration,

Phil Parker
